INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING
DUAL REGISTRATION APPLICATION

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Holsteiners that are registered with the German Holsteiner Verband must submit their original papers with this application.

It is recommended that these papers be sent via Certified Mail / FedEx / UPS with return postage. The German Holsteiner Verband papers will be returned with ownership and studbook information (if applicable) recorded on them.

NAMING YOUR HOLSTEINER:

Selecting an appropriate name for your Holsteiner requires some understanding of the traditions of the Holsteiner Breed.

- COLTS must be named using the first letter of their sire's name
- FILLIES/MARES must be named by using an alphabetical schedule by year of birth.
For example, if born in:

2008 – Name must begin with 'A'	2011 – 'D'	2014 - 'G'
2009 – 'B'	2012 – 'E'	2015 - 'H'
2010 – 'C'	2013 – 'F'	2016 - 'I' or 'J'

A Naming Schedule can be found on our website under 'Horse Forms'

- No horse may be registered with a name that is a duplicate of a horse, alive or dead, that already been recorded in the Registry Books of the A.H.H.A. (Duplicating famous German Holsteiner names is strongly discouraged).
- Once a horse is registered under a given name, that name can only be changed prior to being entered into the studbooks. The fee for a Name Change is $100 (double if a non-member).
- If a mare or stallion has already been entered into the German Holsteiner Studbook, then its name cannot be changed,
- Name choices are not to exceed 18 letters (including spaces).
- Submit at least three name choices in order of preference. And, remember, the horse can be shown under a name different from its breed name! It is suggested that you send copies of the papers to the application Federation.
